Art Center Sarasota Receives Grant from The Florida Department of State Division of Arts & Culture

The $4,395 grant is part of the Florida American Rescue Plan program, which supports operating, staffing, marketing, promotional, and safety expenses.

(September 28, 2021) The Florida Department of State Division of Arts & Culture awarded Art Center Sarasota a $4,395 grant as part of its Florida American Rescue Plan program, which supports operating, staffing, marketing, promotion, and safety expenses.

“Art Center Sarasota is delighted to receive support from Florida's Department of State, Division of Arts & Culture,” says Kinsey Robb, ACS’s executive director. “This grant will play an instrumental role in improving our organization’s communications outreach and accessibility through marketing and web design management. As one of the oldest visual arts organizations in Florida, we are honored to receive this support and excited to improve our reach!”

Art Center Sarasota offers a variety of adult and youth art classes throughout the year and its galleries feature a series of rotating exhibitions. To stay in the loop, subscribe to its mailing list by visiting www.artsarasota.org.

About Art Center Sarasota

Art Center Sarasota was the first arts and cultural institution in Sarasota. Founded in 1926 as the “Sarasota Art Association” by Marcia Rader, the art supervisor for the Sarasota County schools district, the Association was later incorporated as a not-for-profit organization in 1943 and has been in its current location in the Sarasota Bayfront Cultural District since 1949. Art Center Sarasota is a member-supported organization that offers curated and juried exhibitions, adult and youth education programs, outreach initiatives for underserved youth, and culturally related public programming. Art Center Sarasota is admission-free and open to all public; its mission is to inspire individual creative expression, nurture artistic talent and provide the community with accessible and diverse visual art opportunities.
